

How's your love today?

Was is good? Did you share it?

Through a hug, or a kiss, or a compliment

Did it reach to the intended one?

Hope it did, you deserve it

You deserve to love someone

The feeling of giving

The feeling of loving, of helping

Nothing better than that

Love

Love like there will never be a tomorrow

Love

Love like it is the last thing that you will do

Love

Love, because it is the only thing that heals

Love

Because it is the only thing that fulfils

Love

Because after all, why not?

Love

Because you didn't earn it

Love

Because someone needs it

Love

Love, love, love

Love

Trust me

You will not lose anything in loving

Love

So that you will gain

Love

So that you save

Love

Not because I say so

Love

Because it is in your nature

To love

To feel

To help

To question

To try and understand

And again, to love

So love

Because you were loved first.
